

City of Bowling Green Fair Housing Action Plan

FY 2006 (September 1, 2006 through August 31, 2007)

Identified Impediment	Recommendation	Proposed Action
Lack of public understanding of fair housing law	Undertake efforts to maintain and increase education/ outreach programs	Fair Housing Officer to distribute supply of Landlord-Tenant Booklets and Fair Housing Program brochures to all agencies participating in the “No Wrong Door” program and Bowling Green Housing Agency on or before March 30, 2007. Make contact with above-noted agencies before June 30, 2007 to determine if replenishment is needed. If needed, replenish stock on or before August 31, 2007.
		Fair Housing Officer to continue to ensure Landlord-Tenant Booklets and Fair Housing Program brochures are kept in stock in the City Administration Building and Utilities Office throughout FY 2006. Stock supply to be monitored monthly by Fair Housing Officer throughout FY 2006.
		Fair Housing Officer to make no fewer than four Fair Housing training presentations during FY 2006. Two of the four presentations must be provided to a predominantly low- and moderate-income audience. Fair Housing Officer to provide quarterly status updates to the Grants Administrator to include when, where, how many attended and the training agenda. At least one presentation is to be made each quarter throughout FY 2006. Quarterly progress reports due to the Grants Administrator on December 10, 2006, March 10, 2007, June 10, 2007 and September 10, 2007.
		Fair Housing Officer to provide and distribute 500 brochures describing Fair Housing Program, and 150 booklets outlining landlord/tenant's rights and responsibilities on or before June 30, 2007.
